ARTICLE VIII. Limitations and Restrictions

Tax-Exempt Provisions. The Church is organized exclusively for religious, charitable, and educational purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

The Church shall expand or circumscribe its powers and activities as may be necessary to enable it to continue to qualify as a tax-exempt organization under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. No gift or grant will be accepted if it contains major conditions which would restrict or violate any of the Church's religious, charitable, or educational purposes, or if it would require serving a private as opposed to a public interest.

Tax-Exempt Restrictions. No part of the net earnings of the Church shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, officers, or other private persons, except that the Church shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered to or for the Church and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article III hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the Church shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Church shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the Church shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Limitation of Liability and Indemnification. To the fullest extent permitted by Virginia law, as now in effect or as may hereafter be amended, no Director or Officer of the Church shall be personally liable for damages in any proceeding brought by or in the right of the Church, or in connection with any claim, action, suit or proceeding to which he or she may be or is made a party by reason of being or having been an Officer or Director of the Church, provided, however, that such relief from liability shall not apply in any instance where such relief is inconsistent with any provision applicable to corporations described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code or Virginia law for indemnification by non-profit corporations and churches.

ARTICLE IX. Dissolution

Upon the dissolution of the corporation, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a Court of Competent Jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

ARTICLE X. Amendments

Amendments to these Articles will be in accordance with the Code of Virginia, including, the provisions where the Directors will propose the amendment(s), and after at least 30 days written notice to all Church members, approval by the Active Members will require more than two-thirds (2/3) of all the votes cast for the Amendment(s) at a duly held meeting.
